Asian American Authors in Conversation: Georgina Pazcoguin Monday, September 13, 6 PM

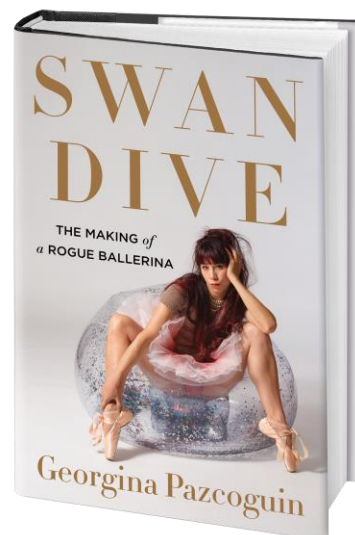

This book talk will take place virtually and in person at Chatham Square Library. Please join Georgina Pazcoguin and our staff as we discuss her memoir, Swan Dive: The Making of a Rogue Ballerina, which is available in print and electronic formats at NYPL.

Georgina “Gina” Pazcoguin hails from Altoona, Pennsylvania. She started with the New York City Ballet as an apprentice in 2001 and became a soloist in 2013—the first Asian American woman (Filipina American) to be promoted to this elevated rank. In her memoir, Gina provides a frank look at her career, the New York City Ballet, and the challenges she has faced over the years. This behind-the-scenes story of a dancer’s life is eye-opening.

To attend in person, you must register with NYPL here: <https://on.nypl.org/3ipaFnb>. Seating is limited to 45 people.

To attend virtually (via Zoom), register here: <https://bit.ly/3B01DUe>.

Swan Dive is available for purchase at the in-person event.
