

ASIAN AMERICAN ARTS ALLIANCE

leisure . freedom . rest

FURSAT

with nikita shah

Rooted in South Asian traditions of leisure, reflection, and wisdom, participants will learn to create simple story-cloths using Kalamkari: a 3,000-year-old craft with bamboo pens and natural dyes, alongside domestic embroidery traditions of Gujarat and Sindh.

Each session includes a short introduction to textile histories followed by guided making in a small, supportive group.

April 24, 2026

Friday, 6:30–9:00pm

May 15, 2026

Friday, 6:30–9:00pm

