

ROSL Photography Competition 2021 is welcoming submissions!

The Royal Over-Seas League (ROSL) is launching the second rendition of their ROSL Photography Competition to showcase contemporary culture in the Commonwealth linking to the theme of International Friendship.

Free to enter, the competition has two categories: Camera and Mobile Phone. Offering more than £3,000 in cash prizes, as well as exhibition and publishing opportunities. The competition is open to photographers 18+. Entries must relate to the theme of International Friendship and have a link to current or former countries of the Commonwealth.

The top 20 photographs will be selected by an expert panel of judges from both commercial and fine art photography institutions, to be printed, framed and exhibited at the Royal Over-Seas League in London. The Camera category winner will receive £2,000 and their winning image will be published in their Overseas magazine. The Mobile Phone category winner will receive £1,000 and their winning image will also be published in the magazine. A photographer aged 18-24 will receive £500 as part of 'The Madiha Aijaz prize for a young photographer of promise', which will be chosen solely by judge Farah Mahbub in memory of her colleague and friend.

The deadline for entries is 5pm GMT on Monday 6 September 2021.

The exhibition of final images will open at Over-Seas House on Tuesday 7 December 2021.

NOTES FOR THE EDITOR

Founded in 1910, the Royal Over-Seas League (ROSL) is a not-for-profit members' organisation dedicated to championing international friendship and understanding. ROSL helps artists and musicians across the Commonwealth connect, collaborate and create. Our humanitarian work benefits communities and changes lives.

ROSL ARTS supports talented young artists and musicians from the UK and Commonwealth, providing performance and exhibition opportunities which bring their work to the attention of the professional arts community, media, and general public.
